

Since 1918, Barcelona's Hotel Majestic welcomed prestigious people from Ernest Hemingway to the Dalai Lama. Yet behind the neoclassical façade waits an interior brimming with contemporary art and the high-tech conveniences demanded by today's luxury traveller.

Built on top of the prestigious Chanel and Armani boutiques, the hotel is in the middle of the shoppers' paradise Passeig de Gràcia, home to several landmarks by the famous architect Antonio Gaudí.

Tastefully renovated, the 303 luxurious rooms and suites equipped with air-conditioning, computer hook-up, wireless high speed internet, interactive TV and all the services that you can expect from a 5-star hotel.

A rooftop swimming pool, bar and solarium afford the ultimate panoramic views increased exponentially in the 300 sqm. Penthouse and its 100 sqm of private terraces. Guests in search of a workout can visit the fitness centre and then relax with a sauna, steam bath, or massage.

Three gastronomic venues offer cuisine for every taste: a quick snack at the Bar, a moveable feast at the Condal Restaurant, or a gourmet odyssey at Michelin-starred Drolma.

Largest capacity of downtown Barcelona, the Majestic is the ideal place to hold a business meeting or celebrate an event in the fully renovated Saló Mediterraneo for up to 500 people. This facility can also be divided in six different sections of about 100 sqm. For a more intimate event or break out rooms, the three salons Passeig de Gràcia offer the daylight of the exclusive avenue as well as the catering of the famous Drolma. All our facilities offer wireless high speed connectivity and state of the art equipment. Additionally, a dedicated multilingual in-house coordinator will help you make your event a success.

Rising above the art galleries, designer shops and famed cultural attractions of the Passeig de Gràcia, the Hotel Majestic embraces all who enter its doors with its sophisticated five-star service. The grand hotel has graced Barcelona's modern district for more than 85 years, and now stands as one of the city's most prestigious addresses.

The hotel's striking neoclassical exterior creates a dramatic presence on one of Barcelona's most beautiful thoroughfares, immediately signalling approaching guests that they have indeed arrived at a world-class destination.

The delivery of stellar service begins the moment guests approach the spacious lobby, which is tended by five-star staff overseen by the Soldevila Casals family, which has owned the Hotel Majestic for three generations. The Soldevila Casals are also responsible for the remarkable modern art collection guests can enjoy throughout the hotel.

Clients will find the guest rooms to be sophisticated and stylish. Of the 303 units, 22 are spacious junior suites, while eight are full-sized suites with every modern amenity. The magnificent 2,100 square-foot penthouse and its 1,100-square-foot terrace, offers the best panorama of the most exclusive landmarks of Barcelona as well as the Gaudí masterpieces.

As one of the city's most elegant addresses, the Hotel Majestic has long welcomed royalty and celebrities; it also serves as the favoured meeting place for international travellers and sophisticated residents of Barcelona alike. Fortifying this reputation is the restaurant, El Drolma, where Chef Fermi Puig has created a world of tastes and culinary sensations of Catalan and Mediterranean cuisine. Awarded the prestigious Michelin star in 2002, El Drolma has become one of the most sought-after reservations in the city.

The hotel also provides top-of-the-line meeting facilities with a variety of venues, including the Mediterranean Salon, which holds up to 500 and a rooftop pool with a bar, as well as an extensive wellness which will be soon converted into an exclusive city Spa.

A recipient of the Five Star Diamond Award since 2003, today's Hotel Majestic embodies the best of Barcelona style.
